Section 2. Classification

Membership is classified as follows:

1. Active Membership. Any duly initiated member who has paid national and local dues for the current fiscal year shall be classified as an active member. Any duly classified member who has paid national and local dues for the preceding fiscal year, but not for the current one, will remain classified as an active member through March 31 of the current fiscal year, pending payment of his or her dues.

2. Honorary Membership. As provided for in Section 1, Subsection 3 of this Article, honorary members are not required to pay dues or other assessments but are entitled to all rights and privileges of active membership, except the right to hold office.

3. Life Membership. Any active member initiated on or after July 1, 1950 who has paid both national and local dues for 30 years is entitled to life membership. A life member will have all rights and privileges of active membership and will not be required to pay any further dues or assessments.

4. Inactive Membership. Any active member whose national and local dues for the current fiscal year have not been paid on or before March 31 of that year will be reclassified as an inactive member. The right to vote and the right to hold office are denied to inactive members. Any inactive member may regain active status by paying national and local dues for the current fiscal year.

5. Affiliate Membership. Any active member of another chapter may be invited to affiliate with Beta Mu, receiving all rights and privileges of active membership on local matters and paying local dues. The member would, in addition, continue to pay both national and local dues of the chapter in which said member holds active membership, and all contacts with the National Office would be maintained through this Chapter.

Section 3. The annual membership dues will be the amount set by the National Executive Board plus local dues as determined by the Beta Mu Executive Board.

1. Dues are due and payable January 1 of each year.
2. An inactive member will receive national and local publications until March 31 of the year in which said member is classified as inactive.

Section 4. An initiate shall not be assessed chapter and/or national dues for the fiscal year in which the initiation occurs.

1. An initiation fee of $6 will be assessed.

Section 5. Membership cards will be sent by the National Office directly to each member in good standing.

Section 6. The fiscal year for the Society and Beta Mu Chapter will run from January 1 to December 31.

Section 7. Beta Mu must hold at least one initiation ceremony each year. Initiates must participate in the formal initiation ceremony.

1. A special initiation may be held at the discretion of the Executive Board.

ARTICLE I—DUTIES OF OFFICERS AND OTHER MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE BETA MU CHAPTER, DELTA PI EPSILON

Section 1. Duties of the President

The President of the Chapter has the overall responsibility for the activities of the Chapter. The President will preside at all regular and special meetings of the Chapter and of the Executive Board, appoint all committees not otherwise provided for, see that all rules and regulations of the National Office and the Chapter are enforced and executed, and perform such other duties as pertain to the office.

The President will co-sign, with the Treasurer, vouchers exceeding $100.

The President will perform all duties in accordance with the regulations prescribed in the National Handbook for Chapter Officers.

Section 2. Duties of the Vice-President

The Vice-President will serve in the absence or disability of the President and will perform such duties as may be assigned.

The Vice-President will perform all duties in accordance with the regulations prescribed in the National Handbook for Chapter Officers.

The Vice-President will keep a historical account of the activities of the Chapter and will send an annual report of the activities of the Chapter to the National Office.

Section 3. Duties of the Recording Secretary

The Recording Secretary will keep a record of all proceedings of the Chapter and of the actions of the Executive Board and will arrange for the appropriate distribution of the minutes of these meetings.

The Recording Secretary will perform all duties in accordance with the regulations prescribed in the National Handbook for Chapter Officers.

Section 4. Duties of the Corresponding Secretary

The office of the Corresponding Secretary is the liaison between the Executive Board for the Chapter and its members and between the Chapter and the National Office.

The Corresponding Secretary handles matters of correspondence that pertain to the Chapter as a whole.
The Corresponding Secretary will keep an accurate and up-to-date directory of members, including the designation of inactive members, will notify the membership of all Chapter meetings, and will send a report of the annual election of Chapter Officers to the National Office and the National President within one week following the elections.

In the absence of the Recording Secretary, the Corresponding Secretary will keep a record of all proceedings.

The Corresponding Secretary will perform all duties in accordance with the regulations prescribed in the National Handbook for Chapter Officers.

Section 5. Duties of the Treasurer

The Treasurer is the authorized custodian of the funds of the Chapter. In performing the role of financial officer of the Chapter, the Treasurer will:

1. Co-sign with the Chapter President all financial contracts of the Chapter;
2. Deposit all funds entrusted in an insured bank to the credit of Beta Mu Chapter/DPE;
3. Maintain an accurate accounting record of all monies received and distributed by the Chapter in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the National Office;
4. Submit a written report of the Chapter's current financial status for each Executive Board meeting;
5. Prepare financial statements at the end of each calendar year;
6. Submit all records for an audit when directed to do so by the Executive Board.

Section 6. Duties of the Faculty Sponsor

The function of the Faculty Sponsor is primarily advisory. The Faculty Sponsor will serve as a member of the Executive Board of the Chapter and assists the Executive Board in the development of Chapter policies. In addition, the Faculty Sponsor is a member of the Membership Committee concerning prospective initiates and honorary members. The Faculty Sponsor is responsible for maintaining a relationship of mutual service and esteem between the Chapter and Central Connecticut State University.

Section 7. Duties of the Immediate Past President

The Immediate Past President is a member of the Executive Board of the Chapter, serves as Chairperson of the Nominating Committee, and assists the President. The Immediate Past President represents the Chapter on the State Advisory Board of Business Education.

Section 8. National Council Delegate or Alternate

The National Council Delegate is appointed by the Executive Board of the Chapter and represents the Chapter at the Biennial National Council meeting and serves on any national committee to which he/she may be appointed by the National President.

The National Council Delegate will serve a term of four years but is not eligible to serve two consecutive terms. The National Council Delegate is responsible for making a full report of the National Council meeting to the Executive Board and members of the Chapter.
The National Council Delegate will perform all duties in accordance with the regulations prescribed in the National Handbook for Chapter Officers.

Section 9. Duties of the Newsletter Editor

The Newsletter Editor is appointed by the Executive Board of the Chapter and is charged with the responsibility of publishing a newsletter, the general form of which is determined by the Board.

The Newsletter Editor works with national and local officers toward implementing the ideals of the Society and the specific objectives of the Chapter.

The Newsletter Editor may appoint an assistant if necessary. The Assistant Editor will be an ex-officio member of the Board with no voting rights.

The Newsletter Editor will perform all duties in accordance with the regulations prescribed in the National Handbook for Chapter Officers.

Section 10. Duties of the Service Coordinator

The Service Coordinator is appointed by the Executive Board of the Chapter. The Coordinator will serve as Chairperson/Coordinator of such service projects as may be designated by the Executive Board/President and will coordinate and oversee any activities which may be undertaken by the Chapter. Such designated projects may be:
